IT'S A FACT

Presenting a series of facts not generally known, pertaining to San Antonio concerns, their products and services.

Gas for home heating, and gas for home refrigeration: such is one of the marvels which science has performed for the comfort and convenience of the American home owner.

The latter phase, however, is perhaps the most significant from the standpoint of scientific accomplishment, for after all it really is

Roster of Hoffmann-Hayman Company Products

Here are the Hoffmann-Hayman Coffee Company's products featured at grocery stores throughout San Antonio Monday, March 12. The items include H & H, Sam Houston, Menger and Texas Girl coffees; H & H Orange Pekoe Tea; Old Dutch Lunch Prepared Mustard, Pepper and other items in the H & H spice list.

The Hoffman-Hayman Coffee company, pioneer roaster and blender of fine coffee, and one of the leading independent coffee roasters in the South, announces today the roster of items in its stock which are to be featured at grocery stores locally beginning Monday, March 12.

The articles represent not only the result of careful selection of choicest ingredients, but of production experience gained in over a quarter of a century of active association with the industry, and will be accorded special displays in many stores, beginning Monday, March 12.

Featured items in the Hoffmann-Hayman coffee, tea and spice stocks include the popular H. & H., Sam Houston, Menger and Texas Girl coffees; H. & H. Orange Pekoe tea, H. & H. Dutch Lunch prepared mustard, black pepper and other items in the spice line.

The wide range of coffee blends and package sizes is designed to supply every demand and requirement in this respect, the Hoffmann-Hayman officials explain, and to verify the company's authentic production slogan, "A brand for every demand."

The products of the Hoffmann-Hayman company featured here are familiar and popular items that enjoy wide favor and sale in the city, and merchants of San Antonio and Texas generally will benefit by securing abundant stocks of all of these items, the officials explain.

not such a difficult matter to set a match to a combustible element and produce heat—but to do virtually the same thing and produce cold—constant, dependable and economical cold—for the preservation of foodstuffs in the home, is entirely a different thing.

Yet that is precisely what the makers of the new air-cooled Electrolux domestic refrigerators have done, for with the Electrolux—and only the Electrolux, a tiny gas flame—automatically ignited—does all the work of providing ample refrigeration for any and every home at the astonishingly low figure of three cents a day.

This, according to A. J. Krisch, sales manager for the Martin Wright Electrical company, metropolitan Electrolux dealer, is the most economical form of automatic refrigeration available in San Antonio today.

Twenty-six separate and distinct models are in the 1934 Electrolux line—truly a model for every

GRANDE COURTS ENTERTAIN GUESTS

Continuing a policy of providing entertainment for guests at regular intervals, the management of Grande Courts exceeded all previous records from the standpoint of originality in the presentation Friday night.

Three four-round bouts between juvenile leather pushers proved exciting in every detail, and the concluding round ended in a knockout. The highlight of the evening was a Texas badger fight between a "ferocious" Kerrville badger and a brindie bulldog.

Grande Courts' manager, Lon P. Piper, was master of ceremonies. The dance music was furnished by Stewart's orchestra.

plained, simply because they recognized at sight the numerous advantages which these items afforded, and the enthusiasm accorded the new models here since they were placed on display last week points definitely to a marked preference for Electrolux here as elsewhere.
